A world designed for every child to explore, experience, and grow

Maniarverse is a playful, inclusive digital world that helps children learn through observation, experience, and meaningful interaction while giving parents a clearer view of their journey

Explore Maniarverse How It Works

WHY MANIARVERSE

Every child experiences the world differently

Children learn, communicate, and engage with the world in different ways But many digital experiences are built around a single way of learning Maniarverse starts with a different idea: observe the child, understand their experience, and create space for them to grow at their own pace

Different ways of experiencing

Every child brings their own interests, preferences, and ways of interacting

MEET MANIARVERSE

More than an app. A world to explore

Maniarverse brings activities, experiences, and discovery together in one playful environment designed around the child.
Children can explore their world, interact with activities, practice new skills, and build their own journey — while caregivers can follow along and better understand their experience.

Explore
